Fort Bend Central Appraisal District Named a Top Houston Workplace In 2023

FORT BEND — The Fort Bend Central Appraisal District (FBCAD) has been selected as a Top Workplace in the Houston metropolitan area by the Houston Chronicle for the second year in a row.

FBCAD was ranked 65 out of the 96 selected organizations and is the only government entity included in the small companies' category. The small companies' category includes organizations with 149 or fewer employees.

"We are ecstatic to once again be included in the Top Workplace rankings," said Jordan Wise, chief appraiser. "Our team works diligently throughout the year to provide excellent service to the public we serve. It's a sometimes-thankless job, so it is truly special to know that our staff has such high job satisfaction."

Conducted by Energage LLC in partnership with the Houston Chronicle, the survey is entirely focused on feedback from current employees. The anonymous survey asks employees to report on their job satisfaction, workplace culture, engagement, and a host of other topics.
